SUBJECT: Nominees for Invitation to DCI Academic Leaders Luncheon

REF : [REDACTED] telecon of 11 July 1977, same subject

25X1A

1. In response to your request for suggested nominees of heads of academic institutions for participation in a DCI luncheon the WFO submits the following names:

- a. The Honorable Joseph Sisco, President, American University, Washington, D.C. We have not had personal contact with Sisco, but as a former Under Secretary of State we expect him to have a sympathetic view of the Agency mission.
- b. Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott, President, George Washington University, Washington, D.C. Elliott has been seen on a few occasions, essentially for good will purposes, and has a favorable outlook on the Agency.
- c. The Honorable James Terry Sanford, President, Duke University, Durham, N.C. We have been in recent contact with Mr. Sanford for FI and operational purposes and find him to be open minded about the Agency and willing to cooperate within stipulated ground rules. Mr. Sanford is a national political figure who we expect would welcome an opportunity to participate in a DCI-sponsored luncheon. united outstanding
- d. Dr. W.E. Lavery, President, Virginia Polytechnical Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia. We have been in touch with Dr. Lavery and know him to be sympathetic to the Agency mission. attended 16 Oct 78 meeting

2. There are other prominent educators who we might suggest for the DCI's program, but the above list is a good cross section of heads of academic institutions [REDACTED]
